20a. How does the Committee accomplish its purpose?

The Commission provided recommendations to the President on implementation of the vision outlined in the President's policy statement entitled A Renewed Spirit of Discovery and the President's Budget Submission for Fiscal Year 2005 (collectively, Policy) in the final report within the 120 days as specified by the Presidential EO and the charter.

20b. How does the Committee balance its membership?

The Commission was composed of nine members appointed by the President, who came from industry, government service, academia, and the military. Collectively, they had appropriate experience in space operations, technology, space science, and senior federal government management.

20c. How frequent and relevant are the Committee Meetings?

The Commission sought extensive input from within the U.S. government, from the public in the United States, and abroad. There were five televised public hearings/meeting in: Washington, D.C.; Dayton, Ohio; Atlanta, Georgia; San Francisco, California; and New York City. There was public testimony from 96 individuals representing academia, industry, media, teachers, students, entrepreneurs, astronauts, labor unions, state governments, federal government agencies, international space agencies, and professional associations.

20d. Why can't the advice or information this committee provides be obtained elsewhere?

The Commission was established by the President to provide recommendations concerning implementation of the new vision for space exploration activities of the United States.

20e. Why is it necessary to close and/or partially closed committee meetings?

N/A
